Subject: Ideas / suggestions

Oops, I've just realised that I've almost missed the deadline, so this is rather rushed.

Basic Ideas are:

- Provide truly affordable (and not overpriced luxury) flats or bungalows for older couples or singles. Well insulated to save on heating bills. With some sort of communal areas to meet up and socialise. This would also release larger houses for families.
- ditto flats for young singles / couples.

I understand that some areas have successfully mixed young and old but youngsters can be noisy and oldies like their peace and quiet.

- Parking in Stroud, especially on Saturday mornings is horrific. How about a Park and Ride above Stratford Park, where Stroud Show is usually held?
- I feel that although there are good communities in some areas, with community halls where people can meet and socialise, other areas are lacking. Could something be done to facilitate this?

Regards,
